"To go forward together in Christ, respecting our neighbour and striving for excellence"

12th June 2026

Dear Parents,

ATTENDANCE

It is important for children that they're in school every day, not just for learning, but to build their confidence and friendships, so they can settle in and feel like they belong.

Arriving at school on time helps start the day in a calm, ordered way. Some children feel anxious if they always arrive after their friends.

Whole school – 97%
Class of the week – Year 3

BREAKFAST CLUB

Please don't leave your children unattended before 8am at breakfast club. This is a health and safety and safeguarding issue.
